Council Shoulder Patches of Chehaw Council

(Both the 1939 chartered Chehaw Council and the 2005 chartered Chehaw Council)

(Appendix updated on: October 5, 2024)

Prior to 1973 Scouts wore strips with the city and state on their left shoulder. Professionals in the Council wore the above strip with the Council name which was referred to as a "Red & White."

"Khaki and Red"

T1
Issued 1972

S2
Issued circa 1977
Plains, Georgia the home of President Jimmy Carter is located in the council.

T3
Circa early 1980s
Given to people who donated to the Total Development Fund.

S4

Circa early 1980s

The 6 tee pees represented the six districts in the council, the 3 canoes represented the key three in the council and the 17 sun rays represented the 17 counties in the council. Many variations exist due to the many loom runs. Most notably are some with a lighter border and some with darker water.

S5

Issued on 2/6/2006.

The S5 was the first CSP issued after the Council name was restored to Chehaw Council, which was effective 7/1/2005. This is a scan of one of the first loom run of 200.

The patch was designed by Mike Johnson of Albany.
