THE HISTORY OF SCOUTING IN SOUTH GEORGIA
(Appendix Updated on: February 18, 2024)

The Eagle Classes for both
Chehaw Council and Southwest Georgia Council

The 1951 Eagle Class was the first to be recognized as a group. The recognition was done at the annual awards banquet held during Scout Week in February. Beginning in 1956, the Eagle Classes were “introduced” by an honored individual. Starting with the hiring of Josh Molder as Scout Executive in 1963, the Eagle Classes were named in honor of a person. The naming of the Eagle Classes was discontinued when Josh Molder retired in 1971 but was started again in 1988.

The Second Eagle Class from 1952

No photo printed in The Albany Herald but the article did state that Chehaw Council had 21 Eagle Scouts in 1952.

The Third Eagle Class from 1953

The article in The Albany Herald reporting on the Chehaw Council awards banquet made no mention of any recognition of the Eagle Scouts as a class.

The Fourth Eagle Class from 1954

The article in The Albany Herald reporting on the Chehaw Council awards banquet made no mention of any recognition of the Eagle Scouts as a class.

The Fifth Eagle Class from 1955

The article in The Albany Herald reporting on the Chehaw Council awards banquet made no mention of any recognition of the Eagle Scouts as a class.

The Sixth Eagle Class from 1956

The 1956 Eagle Class was the first to be “introduced” by person being honored. The Eagle Class of 1956 was introduced by James W. Bush who had served as the first Chehaw Council President.

The Seventh Eagle Class from 1957

The Eagle Class of 1957 was introduced by J. R. Pinkston who had served as the first Chehaw Council President.

J. R. Pinkston introduced Eagle and Silver Awards winners. Eagle awards went to Danny Reese of Albany, M. T. Clements Jr. and Jordan P. Short of Tifton, Harry Dellinger, Dan Wallis and Fred Morton of Americus, and Johnny Ewing and Tyron Elliott of Ashburn.

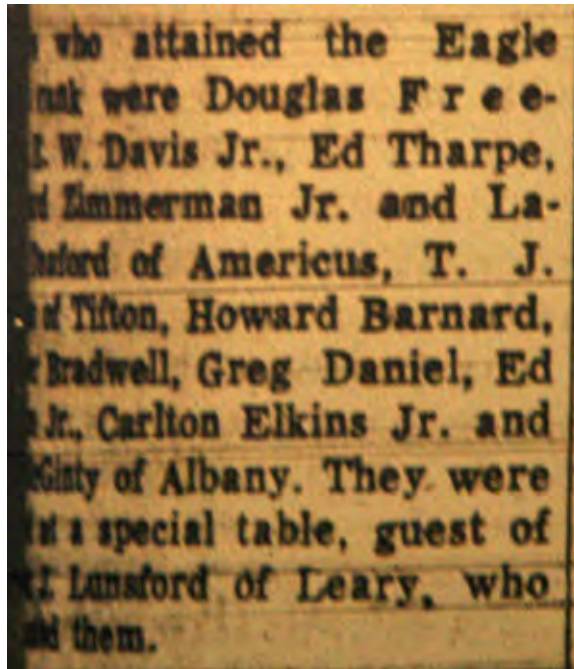

The Eight Eagle Class from 1958

The Eagle Class of 1958 was introduced by H. C. Camp

An impressive feature of the program was the welcome and introduction of special guests by President Johnson and the recognition of Eagle Scouts by H. C. Camp of Sylvester. The Eagle Scouts were Wendell H. Adair, Troop 96, Fort Gaines; Tommy Arnold, Arthur Baldwin Jr., Doug Evans, Ed Fulford, Shelton S. Mackey Jr., Bill Morris and Matthew Williams Jr., all of Troop 71, Dawson; Douglas W. Clegg, Troop 7, Albany; Ed Faber, Troop 5, Albany; Douglas (Butch) Fain, Troop 6, Albany; John Hudgens Jr., Troop 13, Albany; Frank McArthur, Troop 14, Albany; Pat McGinty, Troop 15, Albany; Schley Gatewood and Bill Moyd, Troop 71, Americus; Max Hardy Jr., Leesburg; Rolf E. Quammen, Troop 50, Baconton, and James D. Rainey Jr., Troop 240, Cordele. Silver awards to explorer scouts Robert Jordan, Post 240, Cordele, and James W. Parker, Squadron 4, Albany, were also made by Mr. Camp.

The Ninth Eagle Class from 1959

The Eagle Class of 1959 was introduced by Frank J. Lunsford

The Tenth Eagle Class from 1960

The article in The Albany Herald reporting on the Chehaw Council awards banquet made no mention of any recognition of the Eagle Scouts as a class.

The Eleventh Eagle Class from 1961
