

Appendix 106 to
THE HISTORY OF CHEHAW COUNCIL

Article includes Joe Bishop of Chehaw Council

REPORT TO THE NATION

SCOUTING'S 66th ANNIVERSARY

READER'S DIGEST ASSOCIATION—

BSA NATIONAL PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

NATIONAL YOUTH REPRESENTATIVES

The three young men below have been chosen as the BSA's National Youth Representatives on the basis of outstanding service to their communities, leadership ability, and their accomplishments in Scouting. Representing the five million members of the three Scouting programs, Cub Scout, Scout, and Explorer, the youth representatives will make appearances at many functions on behalf of the Boy Scouts of America throughout the year.

Larry A. Carpenter, 20
628 S. Lakeside Drive
Raleigh, N.C. 27606

Larry is the 1975-76 national Explorer president and also is a member of TV Communications Post 5 of WRAL-TV. An Eagle Scout, he was a council Explorer presidents' association chairman, Area 3 Chairman, and youth member of his council executive board. He was also the Southeast Region winner and a national finalist in the Reader's Digest-BSA Public Speaking Contest in 1975.

Jeff Fred Hunsaker, 10
5512 S. 875 East
Ogden, Utah 84403

A member of Cub Pack 262 of the 75th Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), Jeff holds the Webelos rank in Cub Scouting. Active in Little League baseball and other sports, he is a Silver Medal winner of the Cache Valley Council's Logan Cub Scout Olympics. Also involved in several community water conservation and livestock projects, he has assisted the Utah State University entomology department as a volunteer insect researcher.

David Earl Honigs, 17
5537 W. 27th Street
Topeka, Kans. 66614

David is an Eagle Scout with Troop 59 of the Faith Lutheran Church, and has served as a troop junior officer. Active in Scouting as the chief of the local Order of the Arrow lodge, he is a recipient of the Distinguished Citizen Award from the city of Topeka for heroism in rescuing a fellow Scouter from the Kansas River. An honor student, Honigs is on the school's debate team. He aspires to a career in aerospace research or chemical engineering.

Robert Gutierrez, 15
8525 N. 13th Place
Phoenix, Ariz. 85201

Robert Gutierrez, a Star Scout and senior patrol leader of Troop 160 of the Desert View School PTA, is a recipient of the William T. Hornaday award, presented by the BSA with the cooperation of the William T. Hornaday Memorial Trust for distinguished service in conservation.

CONSERVATION AWARD WINNER

NATIONAL SPEECH CONTEST FINALISTS

The 12 National Public Speaking Contest semifinalists, representing each of Scouting's six regions, will compete for $9,000 in scholarship prizes in two categories, Scouting and Exploring. Each contestant will compete in the semifinals at the BSA headquarters on February 23 in North Brunswick, N.J., prior to final competition the next day in Washington.

Joe C. Bishop, 19
1821 Robinhood Road
Albany, Ga. 31707
Southeast Region

Joe, an Eagle Scout and president of Explorer Post 111 of the Sherwood Baptist Church, is a member of the Chehaw Council Executive Board and Exploring Committee. A freshman at Valdosta State College, he was involved in high school in the Key Club, baseball and basketball, student government, and was president of a state-champion debate team. He plans a career in law.

David K. Butler, 20
7628 Detroit Boulevard
Sacramento, Calif. 95832
Western Region

A member of Explorer Post 909 of the Sacramento Bee, and Troop 405 of the H.W. Harkness School PTA, David, an Eagle Scout, is active in the council's Order of the Arrow lodge, and was voted his district's Scout of the Year. A junior at California State University, he was active in high school on the varsity wrestling team, student government, Spanish club, and was president of his class. He plans a career in journalism.

Bill Clay, 17
 708 Ridge Street
 Copperas Cove, Tex. 76522
 South Central Region

Bill is the first vice-president of Explorer Post 250 of the First Presbyterian Church, and is state president of the Future Business Leaders of America and president of the school science club. Also vice-president of his class, he is cocaptain of the soccer club, and is a member of the speech club and the staff of the school newspaper. He aspires to a career in political science or business law.

William (Kip) Cozart III, 16
 9 Devonshire Drive
 Greensboro, N.C. 27410
 Southeast Region

An Eagle Scout and member of Troop 230 of the Irving Park Methodist Church, Bill has been involved in Scouting as a senior patrol leader and as a member of the council's Order of the Arrow lodge. He is active on his school newspaper and in the Greensboro Youth Theater and plans a career in journalism or the theater.

Joseph T. Cusack, 17
 6821 E. Granada Road
 Scottsdale, Ariz. 85457
 Western Region

Joseph, a Life Scout and member of Troop 445 of the St. Daniel's Catholic Church, is active in the council's Order of the Arrow lodge and has served his troop as senior patrol leader and junior assistant Scoutmaster. His school activities include vice-president and individual-events captain of the Speech Squad, and membership on the debate team, yearbook staff, and in the National Honor Society. He is planning a career in law, political science, or education.

Kathleen M. Henry, 17
 1502 E. Grove
 Bloomington, Ill. 61701
 East Central Region

Kathleen is president of Explorer Post 72 of the Mennonite Hospital Auxiliary, where she has served for the past 3 years as a candystriper. During high school, she has participated in the National Honor Society and student council, and has been a member of the speech team. Other activities include membership in the Trickettes, pep club, drama club, and chorus. She aspires to a career in medicine.

Kevin S. Kreger, 16
 16180 R. Drive South
 Homer, Mich. 49245
 East Central Region

Kevin, a Life Scout and former senior patrol leader with Troop 156 of the Homer Lions Club, has been involved in Scouting as a staff member of the Land O' Lakes Council's Camp Teetokah and as a secretary of the council's Order of the Arrow lodge. An honor student and treasurer and president of his class, he has been active in the chess club, student council, National Honor Society, and on a state-champion debate team. He hopes for a career in either animal behavior or psychology.

Joan McElvenny, 18
 41 Mt. Vernon Street
 Braintree, Mass. 02184
 Northeast Region

Joan is a member of Explorer Post 67 of St. Francis of Assisi Parish and has served the post as its second vice-president. Prior to becoming a freshman at Bridgewater State College, she emerged a winner in a number of local speaking contests. During high school she was a member of the National Honor Society, math team, English Academy, and student council. She looks forward to a career as a mathematician or in the field of computer science.

Paul Richardson 17
3443 Navajo
Dallas, Tex. 75224
South Central Region

Paul is an Eagle Scout with Troop 3 of the Oak Cliff Presbyterian Church. He has held office in his troop as a senior patrol leader and has also served as a Circle Ten Council camp staff member for the past 2 years. His school activities encompass involvement as president of the Terpsichore Tournament debate club and membership in the Corona Exima Latin Club and the International Thespian Society. His hobbies include reading, backpacking, and swimming, and he is aspiring to a career in the field of broadcasting.

Keith Sevedge, 17
2310 North 86 Terrace
Kansas City, Kans. 66109
North Central Region

An Eagle Scout and senior patrol leader with Troop 1 of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Keith is a member of his council's Order of the Arrow lodge and is a recipient of the God and Country award. He has garnered top honors in local and state-wide debate and oratorical contests, and is president of his school's National Forensic League and a cappella choir. He also is involved in the National Honor Society, student congress, and the school's madrigal singers. His hobbies are tennis and golf, and he is pursuing a career in broadcasting.

Joseph E. Tofalo, 14
18 Herthum Road
Whitesboro, N.Y. 13492
Northeast Region

Joseph is a Life Scout and senior patrol leader with Troop 93 of the American Legion Whitestown Post No. 1113. He is a member of his council's Order of the Arrow lodge, and is a recipient of the Ad Altare Dei religious award. Also active in his school's glee club, he has been honored with the club's choral award, and has been presented the school's academic progress award and student service award. His interests include coin collection, music and tennis, and he hopes for a career in aerospace.

Pamela Toler, 17
1350 E. Portland
Springfield, Mo. 65804
North Central Region

Pamela, president of Explorer Post 276 of the Campbell Avenue Methodist Church's Men's Club, has served as president and public relations chairman of her council's Explorer presidents' association. Active with local Explorer Olympics, she won fifth place in a four-state canoe race. An honor student, she is a member of the Mortarboard, a local honor society. Her hobbies are writing, camping, and canoeing, and she aspires to a career as a writer and interpreter.