

Camp Osborn Photos of the Damage from the 2018 Hurricane Michael

On October 10th, 2018 Hurricane Michael hit Camp Osborn with the strongest ever hurricane winds to reach Georgia. This was less than two weeks after the reopening on, September 29th, 2018. The hurricane did the following damage: Tractor barn roof blown away; new gateway sign destroyed; OA burrow, Eagle Pavilion and dining hall roofs damaged; the shower house on the ridge had siding, overhang, and door damage; and, the roof on the fire bowl tower is damaged.

Damage from Hurricane Michael

Damage from Hurricane Michael

Clean-up from Hurricane Michael

Sunset at Camp Osborn in Late 2018

